

Risks posed specifically by the potential presence of COVID-19 virus being present in the Hall

Virus transmitting from person to person within the Hall by droplets emanating from the mouth or nose	Everyone within the Hall and to a much less extend within the Hall's outside spaces	Social Distancing will be practiced in accordance with the current advice from the UK Government The maximum number in the Hall shall be limited to facilitate effective social distancing Hand sanitiser will be provided at all entrances & exits & written instructions will be posted to instruct its mandatory use before entering the Hall. A register will be present to record all people who have entered the Hall, on what date & at what time together with a contact number so that Contact tracing can take place if required. This too will be instructed as a mandatory requirement		Secretary
Virus transmitted from person to person by contact with contaminated surfaces	Everyone within the Hall and to a much less extend within the Hall's outside spaces	Posters will be erected requesting that people avoid touching surfaces unnecessarily. Additional cleaning of commonly touched surfaces will be inaugurated. Cleaners will be protected by the use of appropriate PPE		Secretary

		and written instructions will be provided for its use.
--	--	--	--	--	--	--